

Economic Growth and Increased U.S. Exports: Opening New Markets for Products and Services from South Carolina

You are cordially invited to attend a panel discussion comprised of experts on expanding business opportunities for South Carolina companies wishing to sell American made goods and services to emerging markets in the Middle East.

Keynote Address:

(With Welcome Remarks by Otis Rawl, President and CEO,
South Carolina Chamber of Commerce)

Congressman Mick Mulvaney, Honorary Event Chairman

Distinguished Panel:

- Khush Choksy - Senior Director, Middle East Affairs, United States Chamber of Commerce & Executive Director, US-Egypt Business Council (Panel Moderator and Export Opportunities to Egypt)
- Anne Jafery – Chairman, Middle East Council of American Chambers of Commerce (Export Opportunities to the UAE, Qatar, Oman, Kuwait & Iraq)
- Michael McKenzie - American Business Association-EP (The Business Climate in Saudi Arabia)
- Ed Burton - Chairman, U.S.-Saudi Business Council (Export Opportunities to Saudi Arabia)
- Christopher Wilken – Office of the Middle East, Market & Access Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce (US Government Opportunities for Potential Exporters)

Question and Answer Session / Networking Opportunities to follow Panel

Monday August 22, 2011

Program and Registration begins at 8:00am

York Technical College,
Baxter Hood Center
Rock Hill, SC

Admission is free! Please RSVP by August 17, 2011 to Ms. Shannon Riley of The Capitol Capital Group at (508) 732-8920 or email her at shannon@capitolcapitalgroup.com